To Whom It May Concern:

I am very pleased to recommend Erick Amarales for employment in the Information Technology field. Erick worked with me as a Student Worker III in the Ventura County Health Care Agency Information Technology Department, where I also had the opportunity to serve as his mentor. During that time, I watched him grow from a student worker into a capable and dependable member of our IT team.

Erick gained a great deal of hands-on experience working with Windows computers, hardware deployment and troubleshooting, Active Directory, ServiceNow, ManageEngine Endpoint Central, and other technologies used in a large enterprise environment. He was eager to learn, picked up new skills quickly, and could be trusted to complete the work assigned to him.

Just as important to me was the kind of employee Erick was. He was reliable, punctual, and always willing to help. He has an easygoing personality and got along extremely well with our staff and his fellow student workers. In IT, technical ability is important, but so is being able to work with people. Erick has both qualities.

Erick is continuing his education in Computer Information Technology at California State University, Northridge, while building valuable real-world IT experience. I believe he has an excellent future ahead of him and would be an asset to any organization willing to give him the opportunity to continue developing his skills.

I recommend Erick without hesitation and would gladly work with him again. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions regarding his qualifications or my experience working with him.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to recommend Erick Amarales, who has worked under my supervision since October 2024 to the present as a Student Worker at Ventura County Behavioral Health.

Throughout their time here, Erick has consistently demonstrated reliability. They have maintained excellent attendance and have been punctual for every shift, which reflects a strong sense of responsibility and respect for their team and their work.

Erick has also shown a genuine willingness to learn new skills and take on new responsibilities. They approach unfamiliar tasks with a positive attitude and adapt quickly, which has made them a dependable member of our team.

In addition, Erick works well within a team setting. They communicate effectively with colleagues, are willing to help others when needed, and contribute to a positive and cooperative work environment.

Based on my experience working with Erick, I am confident they would be an asset to any organization.

Sincerely,

Tony Palermino

To Whom It May Concern,

I'd like to recommend Erick Amarales for any technical position. I had the pleasure of with working him at the County of Ventura – Behavioral Health department. In this position he displayed the kindness, patience and technical expertise desired for a technical role. Within the Behavioral Health department, he was responsible for imaging computers via PXE boot, deploying new desk phones, mobile phone configurations and deployments as well as troubleshooting hardware and software.

In addition to his work experience, Erick is attending CSU Northridge in pursuit of a Bachelor's degree in Information Technology. I've had plenty of opportunities training him on configuring virtual servers in Hyper-V, building up domains, performing network cabling among various other tasks he will encounter in his future positions. His motivation and receptiveness to increase his skills and knowledge in the field will certainly be of value to any organization.

All the best,

Andrew Martinez

To whom it may concern;
Re: Mr. Erick Amarales

I am writing to offer my highest recommendation for Mr. Erick Amarales with your organization. While I was working as an Office Assistant at County of Ventura Health Care Agency – Substance Use Treatment Services/DUI Program, I had the distinct pleasure of supervising and mentoring Mr. Erick Amarales from December 2023 – September 2024 during his tenure with us, Mr. Amarales excelled in managing our front office operations with outstanding efficiency and a patient-centered approach. As the first point of contact, they warmly welcomed patients and seamlessly coordinated the registration and intake process. Mr. Amarales demonstrated meticulous attention to detail while processing financial transactions and managing copayments. Furthermore, he took on the responsibility of updating critical patient records and compiling detailed administrative reports, which greatly enhanced our data integrity. His strong organizational abilities bridged the gap between front and back-office workflows, creating a highly collaborative and structured environment that significantly improved our daily operations during his time as a student worker in our department. Beyond executing daily tasks efficiently, Mr. Amarales exhibited an admirable degree of intellectual curiosity and a desire to understand the broader impact of our work. Recognizing his potential, I transitioned into a mentoring role to guide his professional development.

Throughout this period, Mr. Amarales has consistently demonstrated exceptional professionalism, adaptability, and a strong work ethic that sets him apart from his peers. In addition to technical competence, Mr. Amarales possesses outstanding interpersonal and communication skills. He collaborates seamlessly with staff, faculty, and fellow students alike, maintaining a positive and solution-oriented attitude even during high-stress operational periods. His maturity, reliability, and emotional intelligence make him a natural leader among student employees.

I have no doubt that Mr. Amarales will bring the same level of dedication, resourcefulness, and excellence to your organization that he brought to ours. He has a bright professional future ahead, and I give him my unreserved endorsement.

Please feel free to contact me directly via email, since I have transitioned to work for the County of Ventura-Human Services Agency and currently do not have a direct phone number, if you require any further information or wish to discuss Mr. Erick Amarales' qualifications in greater detail.

Sincerely,

Angela Gaytan

Associate Recommendation

Dear Hiring Manager

Erick Amarales worked for me as a Sales Associate at The Best Buy in Thousand Oaks from 2023 to 2024, and I'm glad to put in a good word for him.

Retail moves fast, and you find out quickly who's going to take ownership of something and who's going to wait to be told. Erick was the first kind. He showed up, he did the work, and he did it right the first time. He didn't cut corners, and he didn't need someone standing over him to make sure things got finished.

The other thing I'd point out is his attention to detail. He caught things other people missed, and he followed through on what he said he'd do. He also went above and beyond regularly, staying with a customer longer than he had to, helping a teammate out when it wasn't his job. That's not something you can train into somebody.

Honestly, he's the kind of employee I'd hire at any company I've worked at. Work ethic like that travels. I don't think it matters much that he's moving from the sales floor into IT, the habits are what carry over, and his are solid.

Happy to talk more if it's helpful. My contact info is below.
